School System

□ School System in the Czech Republic
School attendance is compulsory from the age of 6 till 15 (or 16). It is free of charge and all children have the same possibilities for their future education.
This system includes 4 grades:

School System

- a. Pre - school education
- b. Primary education
- c. Secondary education
- d. Tertiary education

School System

In our country there are nursery schools for children to 3 years old and kindergarten to 6 years old.

This pre-school education is not compulsory.

Then children attend basic schools.

The first degree is from the first to the fifth class.

Children learn three issues there: Reading, Writing, Arithmetic.

The second degree is from the 6th to the 9th class.

They learn Czech and Literature, foreign languages (English, German, Russian), Maths, Chemistry, Biology, Physics, History, Geography, Civics, P.E., Music and Art.

School System

Boys and girls over the age 15 (or) 16 attend secondary schools such as grammar school, trade school and vocational school. They can choose state or private school. At secondary school students are taught most of the subjects as at basic school but they are expanded in their content. As for special subjects, they learn economics, typing, accounting, computers, and various kinds of laboratory work. Students finish their studies with the school-leaving examination.
