Dear Holly,

Thanks for your postcard from holiday in the USA. I have never been to New York! I hope you will send me some photos and write me something about the fashion show you have visited!

So you'd like to be a fashion designer? Me too! But I think I'm not as good at drawing clothes as you are. Listen, I have seen an advertisement for a design competition in a magazine. It is in December and it takes place in London. You should go there! You need to send ten pictures of your designs to the end of October! If you don't send them they won't invite you to the competition.

Why don't you try? I'm sending the advert with this e-mail. Look at it and send your pictures! I'll go there with you! It'll be a laugh!

I'm looking forward to seeing you!
