4 Read and answer the questions.

People in the Czech Republic usually like animals. A lot of families have got a pet. The most popular pets are dogs, cats, hamsters, rabbits or fish. For many people, their pet is a member of family and they love him. There are a lot of programmes about animals on TV. Most children in the Czech Republic live in towns and cities, so they don't often see animals, apart from squirrels and pigeons in the park. However, there are a lot of zoos and one safari park in Dvůr Králové nad Labem, where you can see wild animals. Pupils often go to these places on school trip.
