

Task 6 - deadline 2nd February 2011

What does it mean?

To understand the text means to be able to see the links between sentences. Read first two chapters from Running Wild by Margaret Johnson. If you understand well you will be able to find out what the underlined words refer to.

1. When it came down, it hit a car outside someone's house. (page 5)

2. He began to scream loudly. (page 6)

3. The woman turned round and saw him. (page 8)

4. Even school would be better than this, though I'd never tell Alex that. (page 8)

5. Alex hated school and thought anyone who liked it was mad. (page 8)

6. 'Why won't it work?' Alex was saying angrily now. (page 8)

7. There was no one to hear her. (page 11)

8. At last it came. (page 11)
